

Treble Clef & Bass Clef Note Names on the staff

Treble Clef

Bass Clef

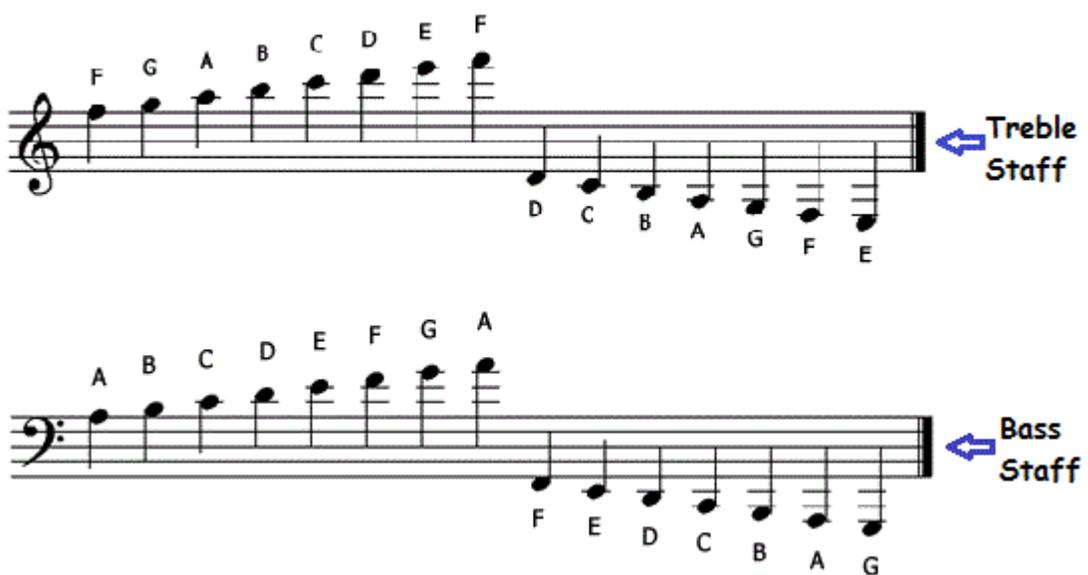

www.thefirstnote.com

Detailed description: This diagram illustrates the natural notes on a five-line staff. The top staff uses a treble clef. On the left side, notes are placed on the lines from bottom to top: F (first line), D (second space), B (third line), G (fourth space), and E (fifth line). On the right side, notes are placed on the lines from top to bottom: E (first line), C (second space), A (third line), and F (fourth space). The bottom staff uses a bass clef. On the left side, notes are placed on the lines from top to bottom: A (first line), F (second space), D (third line), B (fourth space), and G (fifth line). On the right side, notes are placed on the lines from top to bottom: G (first line), E (second space), C (third line), and A (fourth space).

Treble Clef and Bass Clef ledger lines on the staff

Ledger Lines

Treble Staff

Bass Staff

Detailed description: This diagram shows how notes are written on ledger lines. The top staff is a treble clef staff. Notes F, G, A, B, C, D, E, and F are written on the first four ledger lines above the staff. Notes D, C, B, A, G, F, and E are written on the first four ledger lines below the staff. The bottom staff is a bass clef staff. Notes A, B, C, D, E, F, G, and A are written on the first four ledger lines above the staff. Notes F, E, D, C, B, A, and G are written on the first four ledger lines below the staff. Blue arrows point to the right end of each staff, labeled 'Treble Staff' and 'Bass Staff' respectively.